Strategically located in Hickory, North Carolina with convenient access to Interstate 40, this ±41,000 square foot industrial facility offers heavy power capacity and flexible space ideal for manufacturing, fabrication, or distribution users.

Situated on over 4.5 acres, the property provides ample room for outdoor storage, laydown yard, or equipment staging — a rare combination of building size and usable yard in a highly desirable industrial corridor.

The building, constructed in 1976, includes 1,500 +/- SF of office space with HVAC. The facility is served by city water and sewer and equipped with three-phase power to support heavy industrial operations and is fully sprinkled.
